

Europe 2010 Overview

An Exciting Variety of Itineraries for 2010

The magnificent landmarks of Europe beckon. And nobody can show you the best of the Old World like Princess®. Our 2010 program features more choices than ever before — 39 unique itineraries, nine of which are new — plus 11 new ports this season, seven of which are maiden calls, including Cephalonia, Khios, Itea (for Delphi), Koper (for Ljubljana), Nice, Lübeck (Travemünde) and Eidfjord.

Five new 7-day Interlude voyages. Enjoy shorter voyages to popular cruise destinations that can be upgraded to a 10-day vacation with an optional hotel package in two of Europe's most interesting cities: London or Rome. Look for the five new itineraries sailing to the Greek Isles, Western Mediterranean, Scandinavia, Norway and Ireland & Scotland.

Princess signature 2-Day Experiences in Europe. There are three ways to take advantage of this signature feature. On our 12-day Holy Land and Egypt & Aegean cruises, enjoy a 2-Day Egypt Experience, visiting the ancient landmarks in Cairo & Giza on an optional overnight tour, or a 2-Day Israel Experience for an optional overnight tour to Jerusalem and a full exploration of the region including Galilee, Nazareth and Bethlehem. Or, take in all of the exquisite Russian castles, cathedrals, art and more with our 2-Day St. Petersburg Experience that offers two full days, plus an overnight in St. Petersburg on our 10-day Scandinavia & Russia cruises.

Six fabulous ships sailing Europe's regions. Returning to the region are Ruby Princess®, named one of 2009's Best New Cruise Ships by Travel & Leisure, Crown Princess® and Grand Princess® — plus the newly renovated Star Princess®, sailing all three regions including the new 12-day Mediterranean Odyssey. Our small ships Ocean and Pacific Princess®, carrying just 680 mostly adult guests, sail to lesser-visited destinations and offer all the amenities of a large ship as well as a wonderful sense of camaraderie.

Returning favorites. Our most consistently popular sailings return, including the 12-day Grand Mediterranean, 12-day Greek Isles, 12-day Holy Land, 10-day Scandinavia & Russia, 12-day British Isles and 12-day North Cape & Norwegian Fjords cruises.
