Vibrant cities,
ancient traditions and breathtaking beauty. One unforgettable cruise.

Sacred spaces, quiet wonder

Journey through Japan's rich history with visits to the ancient Sannai-Maruyama ruins in Aomori or two of the country's most treasured castles — Kochi Castle, with its original interiors, and the grand, impeccably preserved Himeji Castle.

Tradition woven into every detail

Observe the visually stimulating and fascinating storytelling style of Kabuki in Kyoto's Minamiza Kabuki Theatre. This world-renowned traditional Japanese performance art incorporates music, dance and mime with elaborate costumes and sets.

Where seasons speak in colors

Japan's beauty is vast and ever-changing in all seasons. Here you can wander through cherry blossoms in the spring or experience Mount Fuji, dotted with bright foliage, by fall.

Celebrations that move the spirit

Japan is a country known for its vibrant cultural celebrations, honoring everything from the changing of the seasons to plum blossoms, fireworks and floats. Tradition and festivity come alive year-round with unique events where giant paper images of samurai warriors, animals and popular cartoon characters parade through the streets.

A new experience around every corner

Savor authentic flavors from sushi to sake, unwind in the largest Japanese bath at sea and enjoy cultural experiences like rakugo storytelling, karaoke and traditional dance performances that bring Japan's spirit onboard.
