Natural beauty

Dip your toes in the sand on one of Sydney's 100 beaches, or marvel at Australia's 17 cotton candy-colored lakes or the otherworldly golden dunes rising in Perth's Nambung National Park. In Auckland visit Rangitoto, its largest and most active volcano, or see the South Island's ancient rainforests, waterfalls, mountains and famous glaciers in Fiordland National Park. Soak up the sun floating in the azure waters of Vanuatu and Fiji.

Historic landmarks

Stunning architecture delights from Sydney's iconic Opera House to the Art Deco Capital of the World in Napier, New Zealand. Fans of British architecture shouldn't miss Dunedin, New Zealand, home to the largest concentration of Victorian and Edwardian buildings in the Southern Hemisphere.

Untamed wildlife

Hop Down Under to see kangaroos, Tasmanian devils, koalas and more in Tasmania's Bonorong Sanctuary. Get ready to marvel at the cuteness of the little penguins and tiny Hector's dolphins that play on the western shores of New Zealand. Be awed by the thousands of glow worms that light up the North Island's Waitomo Caves or take an eco-tour in Dunedin, New Zealand's wildlife capital.

Cultural immersion

Dive into the fascinating New Zealand Māori culture on board with our exclusive Across the Ditch program, and then experience it at the Tamaki Māori Village. Each cruise immerses you in the indigenous cultures of the Aboriginals, the Mā'ohi, and the iTaukei.

Unparalleled cruiisetours

Explore more with pre- or post-cruise land adventures. Drive the Great Ocean Road, and see diverse wildlife on Kangaroo Island with our new Southern Australia tour. Our Outback adventure takes you to iconic Uluru, while our Tropical Highlights offers a deep dive into Paronella Park and the Great Barrier Reef.
