The word “great” encompasses a lot when it comes to Alaska. Its coastline is longer than all other U.S. states’ coastlines combined. It has great summits: 16 of the highest peaks in the U.S. are located in Alaska. It has great people, great wildlife and great glaciers. At Princess®, we are experts in bringing you to the many great adventures Alaska has to offer. From rocky shorelines to alpine forests, blue-tinged glaciers to jagged peaks and all the wilderness in between, we will show you the Great Land in the authentic and thoughtful way we are known for.

Each year, Princess hosts more guests in Alaska than any other cruise line. We have perfected this experience to show you this destination in its greatest and purest form.
The voice of a glacier is powerful and exhilarating. The sheer force of crumbling pieces of ice plummeting into the ocean below creates a roar that reverberates from all corners of Alaska’s pristine bays — the native Tlingit call it “white thunder.” Sometimes the glaciers are tinted blue, sometimes pure white, but nonetheless an awe-inspiring sight seldom seen anywhere else. You’ll be completely mesmerized by the sheer height of these towers of ice, some thousands of years old. And you’ll be able to experience them by land, sea or air!
wildlife

Meet the many different faces that call Alaska home, exploring the wide-open spaces of both land and sea. Wave hello to a breaching humpback whale as it crashes down onto the rippling ocean, gaze up toward the sky to spy an eagle circling an evergreen forest for prey, and keep your eyes peeled for an appearance from one of Denali National Park’s Big 5: bears, wolves, moose, Dall sheep and caribou.
Known as “the tall one” in Koyukon (one of the Athabascan languages of Alaska), Denali, at 20,310 feet, towers over Alaska and the rest of North America as the tallest mountain on the continent. Surrounded by a backdrop of other staggeringly beautiful mountains, Denali and Denali National Park are sure to pique your curiosity. Marvel at the summits, eternally blanketed in snow, and witness the mountains radiate a purple and red hue, sometimes referred to as alpenglow, just on the brink of twilight.

“One of the highlights is getting to sample the local seafood, straight from waters teeming with salmon, halibut and king crab. And with Cook My Catch, you can actually be the one who casts the lure and reels in that fresh catch before it is prepared by chefs back on the ship.”
— DANA MCMANAN, SHERMAN’S CRUISE

From guided nature walks to backcountry off-roading, each day is as relaxed or exhilarating as you wish. Keep an eye out for grizzly bears, moose and caribou, all roaming freely throughout the park. And have your binoculars ready as gray wolves and Dall sheep can be spotted in the distance.

EXPLORE THE GREAT LAND
Enjoy a variety of guided tours, allowing you to experience the best sights and activities in Denali National Park. Try out the Natural History Tour for a great introduction to the park, or for a more in-depth adventure, take the Tundra Wilderness Tour.

YOUR WILDERNESS HAVEN
There’s something here for everyone! Enjoy a low-key evening at Fannie Q’s saloon, named after a famed local homesteader, or sit outside at a fireside patio. Be sure to check out the Princess® Village with our popular Christmas cottage and Sugar Shack.

FEAST FOR THE SENSES
Enjoy local crab and Alaska Halibut at the King Salmon restaurant. Visit the Grizzly Burger to indulge in the Ernesto Burger, or grab a slice at Lynx Creek Pizza.
Experience Mt. McKinley Princess Wilderness Lodge®, a true wilderness retreat only 40 miles from Denali, with recreational activities, exceptional amenities and breathtaking views of the summit. Take a trek down one of the hiking trails and venture deep into the woods. Whisk past the trees on an adventurous zipline journey. You’ll always feel Denali’s presence, whether you’re sipping a local brew while gazing through the floor-to-ceiling windows of The Great Room or roasting marshmallows over the firepits on the patio — the mighty peak on full display.

Ascend to the lodge’s treehouse, designed and built by Pete Nelson of Animal Planet’s™ Treehouse Masters. Sample rare tree-inspired foods at Sappy Hour and test your Great Land knowledge with Trivia in the Treehouse.

WELCOME HOME
Enjoy an evening of fresh seafood in the sophisticated yet casual North Fork Restaurant. Or for a different experience, indulge at the 20,320 Alaskan Grill, Base Camp Bar or Coffee Bruin Espresso. Between meals, take an excursion, such as river rafting, glacier landing or fishing.

TALES OF DENALI
Listen to inspiring stories from Denali Mountain climbers at “Meet the Mountain Climber” presentations in the Hudson Theater. After, step outside and observe the restored airplane of Alaska bush pilot Cliff Hudson, the same plane he once used to fly climbers directly to Denali.

spectacular wilderness retreat

Contemplate the grandeur of Wrangell-St. Elias National Park as you gaze through the of windows of the Wrangell Room. Views of Mt. Drum, Mt. Wrangell and Mt. Blackburn tell the story of this UNESCO World Heritage Site, where more than 13 million acres of protected land encompass nine of the 16 highest peaks in the U.S. This stunning lodge is perfectly situated so you can access the park and soak in the serene views of the Copper River. Park Rangers lead walks through the property as they explain the region's copper-mining legacies. Plus, some of our itineraries include a catamaran ride across Prince William Sound.

PEACEFUL SURROUNDS
Explore the lodge’s scenic grounds before boarding the daily shuttle service to the park’s Wrangell-St. Elias Visitor Center & Ahtna Cultural Center. At night, kick back by a flickering fire in the Wrangell Room and strike up a conversation with fellow guests.

DELECTABLE DISHES
Indulge in savory Copper River salmon at the Two Rivers Restaurant. For casual fare, grab a bite at one of the lodge’s laid-back venues, such as the Whistle Stop Bar & Grill and Dragonfly Espresso.

ADVENTURES ON THE WATER
There’s no shortage of excitement in this neck of the woods. Enjoy a plethora of activities, such as salmon fishing, river rafting, kayaking in Prince William Sound, glacier cruising, jet boating and hiking.
Escape into the dense woodlands surrounding Kenai Princess Wilderness Lodge backed by the majestic mountains. There’s a reason the 690,000-acre wonderland of Kenai Fjords National Park is known as “Alaska’s Playground.” What you’ll find above, below and in between the trees are the sights, sounds and scents of a northern territory unlike any other. Condé Nast Traveler readers named it one of the top 12 resorts in Alaska and the Pacific Northwest.

COZY CABINS
Enjoy the wood-burning stove before curling up on the couch with a hot chocolate and a novel. Or head to your deck for a crisp glass of wine, just outside your living room. Enjoy the night sky and listen to the music of the forest.

ACTIVITIES ABOUND
You’re in the great outdoors, so time to get out there! With day cruises through Kenai Fjords National Park, epic salmon fishing on the Kenai River, guided nature hikes and more, activities abound beyond the lodge.

A TASTE OF THE WILD
Visit the Rod & Reel Restaurant, featuring a menu highlighting freshly caught seafood prepared by professional chefs. For casual fare and beers, visit the Rafters Lounge.

CAMP DISCOVERY
In partnership with Discovery™, Princess® has developed engaging new youth experiences and wonder-filled centers designed for cruisers ages 3 to 17 — rolling out fleet-wide.

JUST FOR KIDS
At Camp Discovery, kids can make new friends and participate in activities specially designed to play, huddle, create and discover in two reimagined centers: the animal-themed Treehouse (ages 3 to 7) and the outdoor-inspired Lodge (ages 8 to 12). JUST FOR TEENS
There’s a place on board just for teens! The Beach House (ages 13 to 17), a contemporary beach-themed lounge, is the place to socialize and meet new friends. Teens can take part in activities, including video game tournaments, movie nights, dance classes and a VIP party complete with a red carpet — but just hanging out works, too.

PARENTS’ NIGHT OUT
We offer affordable, late-night kid-sitting* so mom and dad can check out the on board bars, take in local flavors or dance and listen to musicians in the lounges.

take a closer look ...

PERCEPTION
“Alaska is too cold.”

REALITY
We travel to Alaska in the summer, when temperatures typically range from 60 to 80 degrees. Because of its location, the days have extended hours of sunlight.

PERCEPTION
“Cruises don’t stop long enough at destinations to really experience them.”

REALITY
Most port calls are 8 hours or longer, and Princess offers numerous More Ashore LATE NIGHT (9pm) departures in Juneau, Victoria, B.C., and Icy Strait Point, so you can explore by day and night.

PERCEPTION
“I’m too nervous about getting seasick.”

REALITY
Most new cruisers have NO PROBLEM with seasickness due to the ship’s size, navigational avoidance of storms and stabilizers. You may not even notice the ship is moving!
