It’s a land that was meant for adventurers. Snowcapped peaks, turquoise bays and black-sand beaches span two incredible islands as friendly Kiwis welcome you to their home with open arms.

History and culture converge in the Bay of Islands, nestled in a corner of New Zealand’s North Island. Māori legends seem to come alive when you explore the forests of kauri trees and marvel at the otherworldly constellations adorning limestone caverns at the Kawiti Glowworm Caves.
Dramatic vistas fill your vision as you sail through Fiordland National Park. Collectively, the 15 fiords are a celebrated UNESCO World Heritage Site carved into the southwestern edge of the South Island. The most famous — and most accessible — of these steep-walled fiords is Milford Sound, along with the serene surroundings of Doubtful Sound and the vast waters of Dusky Sound.
An Australia and New Zealand cruise will meet — and then exceed — your every expectation. Encounter landscapes and experiences you’ve always dreamed about like Milford Sound and the Great Barrier Reef, then discover unexpected moments, like sipping prized wine and meeting wildlife, that will take your breath away.

From New Zealand’s capital of Wellington, you’ll have access to locations where major motion pictures were filmed. Let’s journey across the ditch together. From Australia to New Zealand or vice-versa, our immersive Across the Ditch program reveals the rich character of New Zealand, from its Māori heritage to delightfully fresh cuisine. Kia ora and welcome aboard!

Your adventure begins the second you board your ship. You’ll embark on culinary journeys, experience deeply rooted cultural practices and discover remarkable places on shore. Let expert local guides lead you to New Zealand’s iconic landmarks, and take your pick of riveting Discovery™ and Animal Planet™ excursions on land. Learn the traditions of the Māori, New Zealand’s first inhabitants, and uncover New Zealand’s enduring history and breathtaking scenery, both on board and ashore. We look forward to introducing you to the wonders of New Zealand while we cross the ditch together.

Australian and New Zealand locals use “across the ditch” as an affectionate term when traveling between the two countries via the Tasman Sea — known colloquially as “the Ditch.” In addition to New Zealand’s kiwifruit and kiwi birds, New Zealanders are commonly referred to as kiwis too!
MAORI CULTURAL CONNECTIONS

Greet one another with a “kia ora!” and discover how the Māori (pronounced MAOW-ree) practice a traditional welcome over a hāngi-inspired feast prepared by your ship’s chefs. Māori traditions have been carefully preserved for centuries, and you can experience the rich culture and celebrate the important heritage of New Zealand right on board. Be captivated by a kapa haka performance — storytelling through the art of dance and music — and learn the art of poi dancing from onboard Māori Ambassadors. Feel the contagious energy during a celebration of the Matariki Festival on board with authentic music, lively Māori performances, traditional activities and themed movies. You can even learn more about New Zealand’s rich history with a pop-up display from the Auckland War Museum in the Atrium. If you desire to discover more, our New Zealand Ambassadors are available on board to share with you more about Māori culture.

A TASTE OF NEW ZEALAND

From the first sip of a crisp sauvignon blanc, you’ll notice the refreshing taste and subtle fruity notes that made New Zealand one of the world’s most acclaimed wine regions. Today, the Marlborough region and other areas throughout New Zealand are renowned as well for producing other delightful varietals like pinot noir, chardonnay and cabernet sauvignon. On your ship, pair these flavorful wines with savory Kiwi cuisine like roasted lamb, fresh seafood and vegetables. Finish your meal with Pavlova, a light and crispy meringue cake garnished with fruit and whipped cream. Ashore, you’ll sip wine complemented by seasonal dishes at the charming wineries in Hawke’s Bay, Waiheke Island and Marlborough.

Experience Kiwi culture on board and on shore. Settle under a blanket and watch one of the classic The Lord of the Rings films at Movies Under the Stars®, and learn from National Park Rangers on board as they offer in-depth commentary of Fiordland National Park’s diverse landscapes. On land, visit the Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa for an up-close look at Māori history and heritage, tour one of the world-renowned wineries in Marlborough and step into the iconic Hobbiton village in Matamata.
